features

Latticework – or trelliage – reached the height of popularity during the Louis XVI period, used abundantly in gardens and garden-inspired rooms alike. We employed that same design idea to our neoclassical collection, with inlaid bands of diagonal laser-cut metalwork on the face and sides.

- Soft, weathered grey finish
- Handcrafted of kiln-dried pine
- Metalwork is inlaid by hand and has an oxidized, zinc finish
- Corners are rounded and fluted, and set on lathe-turned toupie legs
- Fitted with cast-metal rosette ring pulls

- Variations in the wood and metal are to be expected and celebrated.

Each item is unique, and no two are exactly alike; cracks, nicks are imperfections will be present

- Nightstand has 1 English-dovetailed drawer and an open shelf
- Dresser has 3 English-dovetailed drawers with smooth glides

care

Wipe with a soft, dry cloth. Avoid direct sunlight and heat to protect the wood finish.
